

CHAPTER 10 QUIZ

1. The _____ and the _____ were two newspapers that battled to outstrip each other's readership.
2. The American battleship _____ anchored in the Havana Harbor.
3. The Spanish-American War marked the emergence of the _____ as a world power.
4. The first important battle of the Spanish-American War occurred in the _____.
5. _____ is known as the "Father of Communism."
6. _____ as a form of socialism is atheistic, satanic and conspiratorial.
7. Income _____ has been the means of financing massive federal spending.
8. The _____ is the best remembered engagement of the Spanish-American War.
9. Hawaii became an official United States _____ in 1900.
10. The _____ is a series of locks to raise and lower vessels through the mountains of Panama.
11. The Panama Canal is _____ miles long.
12. The theory of evolution was made popular by _____ in 1859.
13. The theory of evolution has no real _____ basis.
14. Not only is evolution _____, but it does not even make good science.

15. The Industrial revolution made many people _____.
16. The idea of an American _____ had come to an official end by 1890.
17. France & England assumed the “_____” of taking civilization to the nonwhite peoples of the world.
18. Theodore Roosevelt was one of the most colorful _____ in history.
19. Roosevelt’s naturalistic instincts contributed to his promoting of _____.
20. Theodore Roosevelt is probably most noted for his achievements in _____.
21. Theodore Roosevelt’s administration and foreign policy were characterized by the phrase, “_____.”
22. During Theodore Roosevelt’s administration more than 125 million acres were set aside as _____.
23. Spanish oppression in _____ resulted in unrest and often revolution.