

CHAPTER 3 QUIZ

1. Locke maintained that it was the duty of _____ to protect its citizen's rights.
2. Avid readers of Locke's _____ were Benjamin Franklin and Thomas Jefferson.
3. _____ has been considered the first comprehensive study of political economy.
4. The French and Indian War played an extremely important role in creating a feeling of _____.
5. _____ asserted the principle of "no taxation without representation" was a basic right of all men.
6. The first American to shed his blood in the War of Independence was _____.
7. A _____ was a colonist who desired and fought for independence.
8. A _____ was a colonist who remained loyal to King George III.
9. _____ was appointed commander-in-chief of the Continental Army.
10. The famous Battle of Bunker hill was actually fought on _____.
11. The Battle of Saratoga was the _____ of the American War of Independence.
12. _____ and his men captured the British forts at Kaskaskia, Cahokia, and Vincennes.
13. One of the most popular songs with Continental soldiers was "_____."
14. Only 5 out of _____ inhabitants were church members.
15. Orthodox means _____ to the Christian faith.
16. Wherever _____ preached, great revival broke out.
17. The belief that man and his society could be perfected led to the formation of numerous Utopian concepts of _____.